

REWiB Bulletin: August 2024

Spotlight: Advancing the Women, Peace, and Security Agenda in Africa

Welcome to the August edition of the REWiB Bulletin! This month, we shine a spotlight on the significant strides made in the Women, Peace, and Security (WPS) agenda across Africa. As a feminist organization committed to promoting sustainable peace and security, we continue to work alongside our partners to track and influence the implementation of the WPS agenda at national and regional levels.

Key Highlights

Research Report Launch: WPS in Conflict Zones

We are thrilled to announce the release of our latest research report, "Women, Peace, and Security in Conflict Zones: An African Perspective." This report provides an in-depth analysis of the challenges and progress in implementing the WPS agenda in regions affected by conflict. The report is now available for download on our website.

Upcoming Regional Forums: Engaging Stakeholders

REWiB is organizing a series of regional forums in East, West, and Southern Africa to discuss the findings of our recent research and explore actionable steps to strengthen WPS implementation. These forums will bring together policymakers, civil society organizations, and feminist researchers to exchange ideas and formulate strategies.

Policy Brief: Integrating Feminist Perspectives in Security Policies

Our latest policy brief focuses on the integration of feminist perspectives in national security policies. The brief outlines recommendations for policymakers to ensure that gender equality and women's rights are at the forefront of peace and security initiatives.

Partner Spotlight: Women of Courage Initiative

This month, we highlight the incredible work of the Women of Courage Initiative, one of our key partners. Their grassroots efforts in promoting peace and security in rural communities have made a tangible impact, empowering women and fostering resilience in the face of adversity.
